HONOREES

NISHMAT'S 27TH ANNIVERSARY GALA DINNER

Rabbanit Chana Henkin

We are so proud to be part of the Nishmat family. The impact you have on the women you teach, the neighborhood you serve and on Klal Yisrael is enormous.

We are honored to be recognized tonight alongside our distinguished friends Yocheved and Rabbi Dr. Jacob J. Schacter as well as the other deserving honorees.

With love, respect and admiration,
Mordecai and Monique Katz

ויפח באפיו נשמת חיים

And God breathed into Man the breath of life.

In honour of

Rabbanit Henkin

who has tirelessly breathed new life into the Jewish world.

Your dedication to the advancement of women's roles in Judaism is an inspiration to all.

In honour of our wonderful family who have been by our side and have supported us through trying times and joyous ones.

Joe and I are overflowing with love and gratitude for all our children and grandchildren. My mother, continues to be our beloved matriarch showering love and affection on us all.

Margot Ganger

Thanking God for giving us the strength and fortune to be involved in Jewish life, support wonderful organizations like Nishmat, and continue to get nachas from our friends, families and community.

Mazal tov to the honorees:

Drs. Monique C. & Mordecai D. Katz

Michele & Joseph Romano

Yocheved & Rabbi Dr. Jacob J. Schacter

Thank you for your support of Nishmat.

Alisha and Yoni, your vision, leadership, and talent is inspiring.

Thank you for all that you do and for teaching me your wonderful ways.

Elana, Miriam, and Tamar, its such a pleasure to work with you and plan events and shiurim together. I'm grateful to have you as my friends and thank you for serving as dinner co-chairs.

Aliza, without your persistence and vision, the Yoetzet Initiative would not be where it is today.

Thanks for starting it all in Philly.

Finally, thank you Tova for serving as the Yoetzet of the Greater Philadelphia community. We love your well-thought out shiurim, witty titles, attention to detail and supportive attitude. We are so lucky to have you in our community.

-Becky Moses

Becky! You're the best.

work that have done. Inspired: By your grit and determination in ensuring that the women in the Greater Philadelphia communities are able to observe Halacha fully in a way that feels most comfortable to them. Grateful:
For all of the work that you do and the time and resources that you invest (that I know about and that I do not) that enable me to serve our community to the best of my ability. Invigorated: By the constant dialogue between us about how we can partner in providing our women and families with the best education and resources. To the entire Yoetzet Initiative: I feel so privileged to be part of your team. What we can accomplish

American Committee for SHAARE ZEDEK
Medical Center in Jerusalem

June 4, 2017

Harriet Sherman Schimel, Executive Director
American Friends of Nishmat
520 Eighth Avenue, 4th Floor
New York, NY 10018

Dear Friends,

If you asked us to enumerate the qualities of what it takes to be exemplary Jewish communal leaders, the following would come to mind: generously giving of one's resources, time, and ideas; a whole-hearted commitment to the betterment of Am Yisrael and Medinat Yisrael; compassion, integrity, and menschlichkeit; and a profound dedication to Jewish tradition and values. Without a doubt, these character traits apply to tonight's Guests of Honor, Drs. Monique and Mordecai Katz.

Nicky and Morty are cherished benefactors of Shaare Zedek Medical Center who care deeply about the health care needs of the people of Jerusalem and beyond. Nicky was honored with the Maimonides Award at the Shaare Zedek National Women's Division Luncheon in 2010 for her incredible generosity and valuable guidance and assistance in working closely with the Hospital's administration to choose state-of-the-art radiology equipment and technology. It was therefore most fitting that Nicky and Morty dedicated the Dr. Monique C. Katz Interventional Radiology Unit and that they received the Keter Yerushalayim Award at the 2012 Shaare Zedek Annual Dinner.

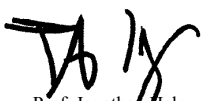

Anyone who knows the Katz Family knows how far reaching and inspired their leadership and philanthropic efforts have been for decades. In addition to Nishmat, countless organizations have benefited immensely from their visionary leadership, guidance, and support. The Talmud teaches: "Rabbi Elazar said, 'Whoever performs even a small amount of charity in a manner which is right and proper is regarded as though he filled the whole world in its entirety with kindness.'" When one considers the extraordinary number of people that Nicky and Morty have helped throughout their lives, whether in Israel, the U.S., or their home community, it is remarkable and profound.

The worldwide Shaare Zedek family joins Nishmat in saluting Nicky and Morty and this evening's other distinguished Guests of Honor, our good friends Yocheved and Rabbi Dr. Jacob J. Schachter, and Michele and Joseph Romano. In the z'chut of their many acts of tzedakah and chesed, may they all be blessed with health, happiness, and nachas for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Menno Ratzker
